Copenhagen, September 14, N. S.

THE Body of the late Margravine was to have been tranſported into Germany, it being concluded that ſhe had deſired it might be ſo; but upon ſome Intimation to the contrary found ſince (as it is ſaid) among her Papers, that Deſign is laid aſide, and Preparations are now making for her Interrment at Roſchild, the uſual Burying Place of the Royal Family of Denmark. This Princeſs happening to die at the Daniſh Court, where ſhe was extremely conſidered, the King of Denmark both for that Reaſon, and out of his particular Regard for the Queen, has been pleaſed to order a deeper Mourning for her than was ever obſerved here before upon any like Occaſion. It extends to Servants and Equipages, and will continue a whole Year. The Regulation having been notified to the Foreign Miniſters, they have conformed to it. The King ſees his Miniſtry every Week as uſual, but will not appear in Publick, nor have any Court, till the Funeral is over. M. Ghavigny, who is come hither with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the moſt Chriſtian King, and who is obliged to wait till then for his Audience, has notified his Arrival to the Foreign Miniſters; in the mean while they have viſited him thereupon, and have had his Viſits in Return. On the 5th Inſtant died here of a Fever, the Privy Councellor Holſtein, Preſident of the Chamber of Finances, and Maſter of the Court to her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Charlotte. M. Benſon, the Stifts-Ampt's-man of Chriſtiana in Norway, being recalled from thence, is appointed to ſucceed the late M. Holſtein as Preſident of the Chamber of Finances, and at the ſame Time is to be a Member of the new College of Commerce.

Hague, Sept. 20, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland have been aſſembled ſome Days, and have diſpoſed of all their civil and military vacant Employments. On the 13th Inſtant the Prince of Orange, with her Royal Highneſs his Conſort, made a publick Entry into his Town of Breda, where they were received with the greateſt Magnificence and Joy. The Prince of Mecklenbourg, Son to the preſent Adminiſtrator, having been here ſome Time, ſet out on the 12th Inſtant for Paris. Yeſterday the Deputies of the States had Conferences with the Imperial and French Miniſters, as alſo with Mr. Walpole. M. de Dieu, one of the Commiſſioners for ſettling the Tariff on Commerce in the Auſtrian Netherlands, is come hither from Amſterdam, in order to proceed to Antwerp. Baron Gedda, late Miniſter from the King of Sweden at the Court of France, is arrived here on his Return to Stockholm. Letters from Vienna of the 7th Inſtant adviſe, that the Duke of Lorrain was returned thither from the Army; that Count Kevenhuller and General Wallis continued the Blockade of Widdin; and that Felt-Marſhal Seckendorff was in Motion towards Boſnia, to joyn the Prince of Hildbourgſhauſen and form the Siege of Zwornick.

Dublin, September 7.

This Day arrived his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Grace was received at his Landing by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Foot Forces in Garriſon, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets, through which his Grace (attended by a Regiment of Horſe, the Battle-axe Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded, amidſt the Acclamations of the People, with the uſual Ceremony, to the Caſtle, where, in the Council Chamber, his Grace took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices. After which the great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon College Green: And his Grace, repairing to the Preſence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, upon his ſafe Arrival to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.
